

YES on Prop 4!

The problem: Current California law allows adult male predators to cover their sexual crimes by coercing minor girls into secret abortions without the knowledge of parents or law enforcement. These predators can even take girls for abortions without their families ever knowing.

The answer: Proposition 4 will require a doctor to notify a parent or, in case of parental abuse, an adult family member, such as a grandparent, before performing an abortion on a girl under 18. Parental consent is not required, but her family will now be able to help her understand all options, provide her medical history, and in cases of rape, alert law enforcement.

Facts:

- During the past 25 years, more than thirty states have enacted laws like Proposition 4. They have seen reductions in teen pregnancies, abortions and STDs.
- Abortion providers often have not alerted law enforcement when sexual predators bring minor girls in for abortions. That's why law enforcement agrees- Family involvement is needed to protect young daughters.

Help Prop. 4 protect REAL GIRLS in the REAL WORLD from being victimized by secret abortions and sexual predators.

Who is Sarah?

Sarah was only 15 when she had a secret surgical abortion. She was sent home, but days later a high fever set in. Her family was unaware that she had an abortion and that the procedure had torn her cervix.

By the time doctors determined the cause of her fever it was too late. The tear became a fatal infection. Sarah's life was lost. Medical professionals testified that had her family known about the abortion, Sarah's life could have been saved.

More Real Stories:

- 41 year old Adam Gault lured a 14-year-old from her home with promises of drugs, a job, and freedom. Instead, she became his sex slave for a year, captive in his house. When she became pregnant, Gault took her to Planned Parenthood for an abortion. Planned Parenthood didn't report the crime.
- Planned Parenthood failed to report the sexual abuse of a 13-year-old brought for an abortion by the 23-year-old who raped her. After the secret abortion, the same man impregnated her again, and she had a second abortion.
